GETTING STARTED

First, we encourage you to provide your email address to the MGEU. If you prefer to keep your union and personal email separate, you can create a free email account – Gmail, Apple Mail, Outlook or Hotmail, for example – that you use solely for union business.

It's important that we always have your current email address and other contact information in our database. Contact information can be updated by clicking on the "Update Your Information" tab at the top of MGEU.ca or by contacting the MGEU Resource Centre.

Next, set up an account on THE SOURCE FOR WORKPLACE REPS. THE SOURCE is a MGEU password-protected site for workplace representatives where you can submit your expenses, read your minutes, download the forms you need, and register for courses and other union events.

To access THE SOURCE, go directly to thesource.mgeu.ca or go to MGEU.ca and click THE SOURCE FOR WORKPLACE REPS button. You will need your member number and name as it appears on your MGEU Membership Card. If you don't have a card, or run into problems, please call the MGEU Resource Centre.

Lastly, we recommend signing up for direct deposit. Complete and submit the Direct Deposit Enrolment Form from THE SOURCE (From the menu, select "Forms," then "Downloadable Forms" and look under the "Finance" section).

REGISTRATION

You will be notified by email when registration opens for a course you are eligible to take. You can then login to THE SOURCE to register. Click "Courses/Events" from the menu. Courses that you are eligible to attend will be posted under "Available Events." Click the course name and follow the steps.

If you have not provided us with an email address, you will receive an application by mail. Please complete and return the application using the postage-paid, self-addressed, return envelope provided.

If your application has been accepted, four weeks prior to the course, you will receive an acceptance package by mail containing information regarding the course. A Request for Union Leave letter will be included, if you requested it. Please check that it is correct and provide it to your employer.

You will be contacted by mail, email or phone if we need to cancel or reschedule your course.

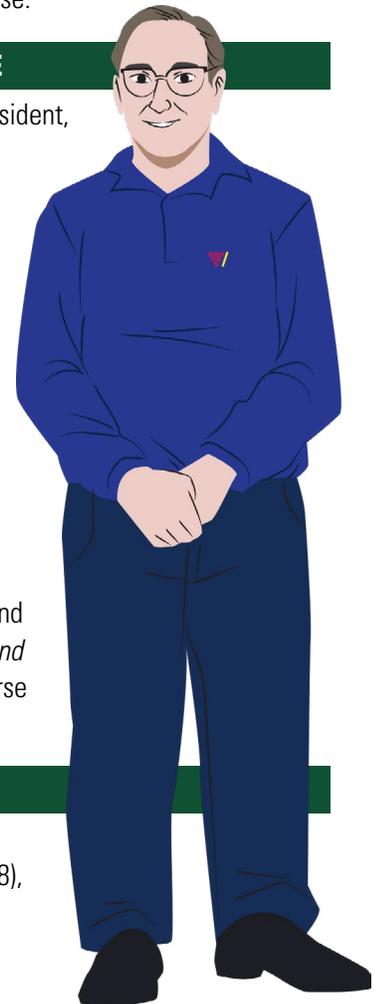

YOUR FIRST COURSE

In any union school year, a president, chief steward, vice-president, member-at-large or steward can attend up to four days of MGEU training. Local Table Officer Discussions and Bargaining Collectively do not count as one of these days. We Are the MGEU is the first course to take.

Direct Deposit

MGEU recommends signing up for direct deposit. You will receive reimbursement much faster, it reduces paper waste, and it saves the membership on postage costs. To sign-up, complete and submit the Direct Deposit Enrolment Form from THE SOURCE (From the menu select “Forms,” then “Downloadable Forms” and look under the “Finance” section). Enrolment forms for direct deposit will also be available at courses or through the MGEU Resource Centre.

You can submit your expenses on THE SOURCE (go to the “Forms” menu and click on “Expense Claim Form”) or via a paper expense form. Expense claim forms will be provided at courses; however, submission through THE SOURCE is recommended.

A full list of MGEU’s expense policies can be found in the MGEU Policy Manual under sections 4.3.4.7 to 4.3.4.18. A non-exhaustive list of expenses you may be eligible to claim include payments to your employer for time off to attend the course, travel expenses for you to get to your course (e.g. mileage, hotel accommodation, parking, meal allowances, airfare), as well as child/elder care expenses.

Review the MGEU Policy Manual for specific rules and requirements and contact the MGEU Resource Centre and/or MGEU Finance Staff should you have questions. The MGEU Policy Manual can be found in THE SOURCE, at MGEU.ca under ABOUT US or by contacting the MGEU Resource Centre.

If you require a flight, please contact the Education Department through the MGEU Resource Centre to book. You can submit receipts for taxis from the airport to the course location.

In order to qualify for a hotel room, you must live at least 60 kms away from the course location.

If you are eligible for a hotel room, please contact the Education Department through the MGEU Resource Centre to book. If circumstances arise and you are unable to attend your course, you need to advise MGEU of this as soon as possible so that travel arrangements can be cancelled and unnecessary charges avoided. You will be responsible to connect with the Education Department and arrange for cancellation of any hotel or other travel arrangements (e.g. airfare) that has been made for you. If MGEU is not notified, and charges are incurred, these charges will be billed back to you.

Childcare and eldercare expenses are also reimbursed within certain guidelines. A receipt from the caregiver is required.

Attendance Policy

If you are accepted into a course but then cannot attend, notify the MGEU Resource Centre. After normal business hours, you can contact the MGEU Resource Centre by email or leave a voice message on their answering service.

If you are sick on a day you are scheduled to attend training, contact the MGEU Resource Centre by email or leave a voice message on their answering service. In addition, contact your employer to notify them that you require a sick day. The union will not reimburse your employer if you cannot attend a course due to illness.
