- 7:1 Union membership is divided into Locals set up by the Board of Directors. Locals are under the authority of the Board. (1999)
- 7:2 The jurisdiction and location of the Locals are governed by the Bylaws. (1999)

Membership Dues

- 8:1 Membership dues or special assessment are set every two years at Convention or at a Special Convention. Two-thirds of the elected delegates present during the voting must approve the proposed amount. Dues will be paid by payroll deduction or by cash instalments. (2010)
- 8:2 The Board of Directors may increase your current dues by up to 25% with a two-thirds vote, if:
- the Defence Fund drops below 50% of what it was before the strike started or
 - it drops to less than $1,000,000 at any time and
 - the increase is used only for the Defence Fund (1996)
- 8:3 You will pay extra dues if you work when your own bargaining unit is on a lockout or strike. These dues will be deducted from your paycheque. This includes when you are required by law to provide essential or emergency services, as well as when you choose to keep working during a strike or lockout. In these cases, you will pay dues of 30% of your basic pay (before deductions). These dues will be in addition to your regular dues and will be put into the Defence Fund. (1996)

8:4 You will pay extra dues if you work during an alternate job action. This could include escalating strikes, when increasing numbers of members go out on strike. This could also include rotating strikes, when different Locals go out at different times. The Board of Directors and bargaining committee may decide together if you will be assessed these dues. In these situations, you may pay dues of 30% of your basic pay (before deductions). These dues will be deducted from your paycheque. These dues will be in addition to your regular dues and will be put into the Defence Fund. (1996)

- 9:3 The Disciplinary Committee will investigate the allegation(s) by holding informal hearings, interviewing witnesses and reviewing relevant documents. (2008)
- 9:3:1 You will be informed in writing as to the specifics of the allegation(s) and who made the complaint(s). (2008)

The Board of Directors will make a decision within sixty days from the date of receipt of the appeal. The Board of Directors may allow or dismiss the appeal or vary the decision. The Board of Directors will provide you with their decision in writing. (2012)

9:5:2 Step 2:

13:5 Changes made to the Constitution become official the day after Convention.

14:1 The Bylaws may be changed by Convention or by the Board of Directors. The Board requires notice of these changes at two meetings in a row with the suggested changes to be dealt with at the following, third meeting.

14:2 A motion to change the Bylaws needs a majority vote.

14:3 All Bylaw changes passed by the Board of Directors need approval at the next Convention to remain in force.

14:4 Any suggested Bylaw changes that fail to pass at Convention will not be reintroduced at a Board of Directors meeting before the next Convention.

14:5 If a Component, Local, Area Council, or Component Executive decides that any rules or regulations are needed to help them do their job well, they will suggest their ideas to the Board of Directors. These suggestions should be considered after reviewing past decisions and past practices of the Board of Directors and provide such to the Board of Directors. If these suggestions are then approved, they will be included in the Bylaws following the process listed in Article 14:1 of the Constitution.
