Memorandum of Agreement between

Macdonald Youth Services

and

Manitoba Government and General Employees' UnionRe: Job Sharing

Purpose

This Memorandum of Agreement reflects the Agency's commitment to job sharing arrangements as a viable employment alternative for employees. In considering a job sharing request, all parties shall use best efforts to negotiate a satisfactory arrangement in which operational requirements can be met and the quality of service is not affected.

Definition

Job sharing is an alternative work arrangement whereby the duties and responsibilities of a full-time position are restructured to accommodate the employment of two (2) employees on a work time sharing basis. The job sharing employees are accountable for the whole job and the employees must interact in order to accomplish this.

Description

Job sharing can be beneficial to managers by providing greater flexibility in work scheduling to cover busy periods, meeting affirmative action goals and retaining valued personnel as well as bringing a wider spectrum of skills to a position and establishing a wider pool of skills from which to draw.

Job share arrangements can be attractive to employees who are parents of small children; employees whose physical capabilities are limited due to handicaps or illness, employees wishing to phase out of the workforce or workers continuing with their education, other circumstances may be considered by the Executive Director upon referral from the Human Resource Department.

Managers can also use job sharing as a valuable tool in career development plans for employees. For example, an experienced employee wishing to work part-time could job share with an employee with less experience being trained for the position.

General Guidelines

1. Nothing contained in this Memorandum of Agreement shall vary or change the Collective Agreement in intent or meaning.
2. Job sharing positions are worker initiated and may be requested by any full-time permanent employee of the Agency who has completed the equivalent of two (2) years service with the Agency and has satisfactorily completed Competency-Based Training program, where appropriate.
3. The number of job share arrangements in any one Service Unit/Program Area is at the discretion of the Program Coordinator. Requests for job sharing will be considered on an individual basis within the feasibility of operational and service requirements of a work unit. No more than twenty percent (20%) of all staff positions can be a job share.
4. In order for a job share arrangement to be successful, it must:
 - have a clear job description with clear standards outlined and attached for each party;
 - have an established communication system between both parties;
 - be voluntary;
 - have the cooperation, support and commitment of each employee, the supervisor and the employing authority;
 - be well organized;
 - have expectations clearly outlined in advance;
 - have an appropriate “Letter of Agreement” in place;
 - have flexibility between the parties in negotiating compromises.
5. Job sharing employees shall sign a job sharing agreement letter.

6. No one job share employee shall own the position while the job shared agreement is in place. An employee who is an incumbent in a job sharing arrangement does not have any continuing rights to the position being shared or retained any rights to the previous position held.
7. The benefits for two employees job sharing a full-time position shall be prorated in accordance with proportion of time worked. The total cost to the Agency of the benefit shall be no greater than the cost of having the positions filled by a full-time employee.
8. Once a position has been approved for job share, the remaining portion of the position will be filled consistent with the Hiring Policy with the following words stated on the job posting:

“This full-time position is to be job shared by employees working part-time on a time shared basis. If you wish to apply for this position on a part-time basis, submit an application to the Employer”.
9. When one of the participants of the job share arrangement requests vacation leave, is absent due to illness or injury, or is on a leave of absence from the Employer, the Employer may, at its discretion, require the other participant to cover a portion or all of the days the other employee is away. In considering implementation of this provision the parties shall exercise reasonableness and flexibility.
10. In the event that one of the employees in a job sharing arrangement can no longer fulfill their obligation as described in the job sharing agreement, the position will be dealt with in the following manner:
 - (a) The remaining employee in the job share position will have the option of filling the position on a full-time basis without posting;
 - (b) If the remaining employee elects not to take the position full time, the position will be posted as described in #8 above;
 - (c) If no suitable internal candidate can be found, management may at their discretion seek a suitable external candidate. In any case, if no suitable candidate can be found, the remaining employee will have a final option to fill the position full-time;

- (d) If the remaining employee is unable to assume the full-time position the remaining employee shall have the following options:
 - (i) Resign.
 - (ii) Take the first vacant comparable part-time position for which he/she is qualified and is the successful applicant. The employee shall remain on unpaid leave until a posting becomes open.
 - (iii) Continue in the full-time position for three months and then re-bulletin the job share position. Again, should no suitable candidate be found, the complete would have the options outlined in #10 (a), (b) and (c) above.
- (e) The job vacancy when posted, will be filled as a full-time position.

11. The first six (6) months of the job share arrangement shall be a trial period. During the trial period, the Employer or the employees who requested the job share may terminate the arrangement in writing with thirty (30) calendar days' notice prior to termination. Either party can only request termination for cause.

If the job share arrangement is terminated during the trial period, the employee who requested the arrangement or, if not so requested, then the employee who has the most seniority will return to the original full-time position. The other affected employee will be laid off in accordance with Collective Agreement provisions (Article 40).

12. Subsequent to the trial period, the job share arrangement may be terminated:
- (a) By the Employer in writing with thirty (30) calendar days' notice in response to un-resolvable operational and/or service issues. Such action shall not be unreasonably exercised.

- (b) By mutual agreement of the job share employees in writing with thirty (30) calendar days' notice in response to un-resolvable operational and/or service issues.

Reassignment of the employees will be as described in number 11 above.

Benefits

1. Job share employees will only be eligible for the benefits in accordance with Collective Agreement provisions for part-time employees.
2. Job share employees will be entitled to payment for statutory holidays, as outlined in their respective Collective Agreement.

In a bi-weekly period in which a holiday falls, the work schedules for that pay period will be adjusted to ensure the remaining hours of work are equally split between the two parties. This may be accomplished through the regular scheduling process or may be arranged by the parties in consultation with the supervisor.

3. The Employer's group benefit plan requires a minimum number of hours per week to be eligible for the benefit plan.

Job Share Approval Process

Employee's Responsibilities

- (a) Review the current job description and develop an equitable division of duties and workload to ensure accountability is clear.
- (b) Write a job share proposal including type of communication system, work schedule, possible problems and possible solutions. Ideally the proposal should be discussed with team members re potential issues and solutions.
- (c) Search and identify another employee interested in part-time work if one is not already available.
- (d) Forward the proposal to the supervisor.

Supervisor's Responsibilities

- (a) Review the proposal in relation to operational requirements and service/workload demands, and discuss with the employee(s).
- (b) Recommend the approval of the proposal to the Program Manager and the Director of Human Resources.
- (c) If approved, complete a job share agreement with the employees. If a partner needs to be found, prepare a job posting in accordance with Guideline #8 above.
- (d) Forward the completed job share agreement for placement in the Personnel file and provide a copy to the Payroll Department.
- (e) If the job share proposal is not recommended by the supervisor, then the Program Coordinator and Human Resources Officer(s) shall be informed. A meeting shall be called with the Human Resources Officer(s) to review the recommendation in accordance with the job share Memorandum of Agreement and operational/service requirements.
- (f) If the recommendation to deny the request is accepted, the reasons shall be documented by the supervisor and discussed with the employee(s), a Union and Human Resources representative.
- (g) If the employee(s) disagree with the decision to deny the job share arrangement, the employee has the right to file a grievance, the procedure for which is outlined in the Collective Agreement.

This Agreement shall be attached and form part of this Collective Agreement.

Signed this 21st day of March 2018.
